

TPPC Special Events

David Pippen Memorial Golf Tournament

Jan. 6 - Cottonwood Creek Golf Course

The 4th Annual David Pippen Memorial Golf Tournament will be held from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. at the City of Waco's Cottonwood Creek Golf Course. The course, located at 5201 Bagby, is rated as Waco's top golf destination and has been recognized by the Dallas Morning News as one to the top municipal courses in the state. Cottonwood features 18 championship holes, a driving range, a junior course, a pro shop and a bar-and-grill.

Sports and Spirits

Jan. 6 - Texas Sports Hall of Fame/Cricket's Draft House

The Sports and Spirits social is a catered event that will be held at the Texas Sports Hall of Fame. The museum features a remarkable collection of sports exhibits that focus on Texas athletes, venues and organizations.

Following the dinner and drinks at the Hall of Fame, the event will move to one of downtown Waco's favorite hangouts . . . Cricket's Draft House. Located across the street from the Hilton, Cricket's claim to fame is the more than 100 beers on tap: everything from Texas microbrews to international standards. With big-screen TVs, dartboards, shuffleboard and pool tables, Cricket's offers a comfortable atmosphere for everyone.

Dueling Piano Night with the Vendors

Jan. 7 - Waco Convention Center

Here's your chance to get to know the vendors at this year's conference. Vendors will have their products on display at the Convention Center and will be passing out free drink tickets.

Then the Texas Blazing Pianos will take the stage and spice up the evening. Based out of Houston, this is Texas' only traveling dueling piano group. The Texas Blazing Pianos will offer high-octane entertainment that will have you clapping, dancing, singing and more!

Kickin' Wild West BBQ

Jan. 8 - Wild West Club at River Square Center

What's a get-together in Texas with out some tasty BBQ? Some of TPPC's best grill masters will heat up the smoker and provide a great meal with all the fixins at downtown Waco's newest club, Wild West. The club will be open to TPPC members only and includes full-service bars, a huge dance floor and a motto of “Two-Steppin’ and Long-Neckin.”
